HISPANIC HERITAGE

MCC is proud to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month by recognizing the contributions and the important presence of Hispanic and Latin American local visual artists that are presently living through the gallery:

• • • • OUR ART, OUR POWER • • • •

This intricate and colorful exhibition spotlights the works of art from various Latin American artists and the Countries that they represent: MAI YAP (Panamá), NIDIA DEL MORAL (Venezuela), TERE JESSURUM URIBE (Colombia), ELKIN CAÑAS (Colombia), ELIANA SEVILLANO (Bolivia), JORGE SALAS (Venezuela), OSWALDO GUAYASAMIN⁺ (Ecuador).

The exhibit takes us on a journey into providing a glimpse of the immense impact that these artists have had on our artistic and social development and ultimately leaving an imprint on the evolution of Hispanic Culture in the United States.
