In order to qualify for the City of Miramar Hardship Exemption for Fire Protection Assessment Fee the "Household Income" (cumulative "adjusted gross income") of all persons living in the home cannot exceed the maximum household adjusted gross income shown in the table below. This exemption applies only to the Fire Protection Assessment Fee levied by the City of Miramar granting the exemption.

- (a) "Household" means all persons including the property owner living together in a room or group of rooms as a housing unit, but the term does not include persons boarding in or renting a portion of the dwelling.
- (b) "Household Income" means the adjusted gross income, as defined in s.62 of the United States Internal Revenue Code, of all members of a household. (This is the amount reported on IRS Form 1040, line 37.)
- (c) "Owner" means the individual listed in the records of the Broward County Property Appraiser, on a recorded deed to the property, or in the case of a trailer park, the title holder of the trailer parked on an individual lot within the park.

Income limits for the household are as follows: (Income limits may be adjusted annually)

FY 2023 HHS Poverty Guidelines
Number of Persons	Maximum Income
1	$29,160
2	$39,440
3	$49,720
4	$60,000
5	$70,280

For units of more than 5 add $10,280 for each additional member.

According to the IRS, a person cannot file Form 1040EZ if he/she has taxable social security benefits, and the person must file either Form 1040 or Form 1040A. If you have social security benefits, according to the IRS, they are not automatically included in adjusted gross income. If your gross income is below the filing thresholds for federal income tax, consult IRS to verify that no portion of Social Security income is included in adjusted gross income to meet the current limit on adjusted gross income as factored for cost of living.

If your combined benefits and other income exceed other applicable thresholds, some portions of your Social Security income may be taxable. Consult IRS for portions of Social Security income that may be taxable based on current formulas.

NOTE: According to the IRS, social security benefits include monthly survivor and disability benefits. They do not include supplemental security (SSI) payments, which are not taxable.
